

1. Color your picture inside the dashed square, then keep coloring past the dashed line all the way to the outer edge so the finished magnet has no white rim. Crayons and colored pencils work best; let markers dry.

2. A grown-up cuts on the solid octagon line. Cutting slightly outside the line is fine.

3. Bring it to us or to the party press and we turn it into a real magnet.